Graduation

The four-year cruise has ended,
And to dock, the craft are moored,
Leaving only pleasant memories,
That each vessel's hold has stored.

Each sail has caught a different breeze,
Each ship has sailed its course,
Each vessel now has shown its worth,
Its weakness or its force.

Some vessels sailed with greater speed,
And raised a higher spray
While others traced a shorter wake,
Content with small array.

The unseen reef, the shoal and rock,
Have claimed their share of ships;
The fog and stormy gales at sea,
Have shortened many trips.

Harbored now, the ships will sail,
For other ports of call,
Embarking on another cruise,
The longest one of all.

OTTO L. LUTHER

OUR PRINCIPAL—for four years he has encouraged us, always understanding and patient with those of us who find the way hard, forgetting our misdemeanors and recalling our good deeds, always seeing the best in us.

Ever on the alert for opportunities of service to the school, Mr. Luther has untiringly given of his time and ability to Queen Anne High School. His friendly counsel, keen wit, and brilliant mind will be remembered by all of us each time we recall the many rich experiences of our high school days. Although we go on into new pursuits after our graduation, Mr. Luther will remain here at Queen Anne to guide patiently and sympathetically the students who will come after us.

In dedicating this book to him we, the class of 1937, desire to show our deep appreciation for his outstanding work.

Loads of luck

The knowledge of the world,
Like liquid in glasses,
Is condensed by these teachers
And taught to their classes.

Dear Martha
Yes it's been nice knowing you and I know I'll see you lots this summer because you'll probably almost be my next door neighbor — I hope — I think your just swell and hope you all the luck in the world (also)

ADMINISTRATION

Remember when we had to go to W.O.A.A. and used to have fun! I wish I could see you, Martha. You're the gal to lead a Varsity Yell. V.D. Grau

VICE-PRINCIPAL E. H. MOORE

The Faculty

WELCOME, to our thirteen new teachers and to our two hundred eighty-two new pupils who transferred from Lincoln! We all know how much you must have disliked changing your school and we are doing all possible to make you feel more at home. We hope you will consider this your school as much as it is ours.

Two of our teachers left us and thirteen new ones were added to accommodate the increase in our student body. Mr. Elwick, who has taken a position with the government, will be greatly missed by all. Mr. Hull was transferred to Roosevelt to assist in coaching athletics.

We have been very happy to welcome our new teachers to the faculty: Miss Rebecca Arnelle, English; Mr. David Burrell, Manual Arts; Mr. Lee Garrison and Miss Genevieve Gorrell, Mathematics; Mr. Charles Heffelfinger, History and English; Mr. O. K. Krienke, Mathematics and General Science; Mr. Harry Liden, Commercial; Mrs. Rachel Schmidle, English and Home Economics; Mr. Loren Schoel, Boys' Gym and Athletic Coach; Mrs. Eleanor Southern, Attendance; Mrs. Julia Torrico, English and French; Miss Pauline Thomas, English and new Girls' Athletic Coach; Mrs. Herta Ward, Commercial.

This year many students will pass out of our halls and into universities and the business world. Our teachers, however, remain to assist and to guide the lives of the students who are continually coming and going. They have prepared a sound foundation upon which our lives are built, and in years to come we will always look back and thank them for their leadership.

Due to the untiring work of our principal, Otto L. Luther, and his competent assistants, busses were provided for the benefit of the students living in the Magnolia, Lawton and Interbay districts. In the short time that they have been in use these busses have proved very valuable to the school as well as to the students who use them.

During the school year of 1935-36, the maximum number of students attending Queen Anne was 1888. However, during the current year there was an increase of two hundred seventy-two students, thus raising the maximum to 2160. Our teachers are to be thanked for their efficient adaptation made to this great increase.

Because of the enlarged enrollment this year many other changes had to be made in our school life. A system of double assemblies was introduced; one-half of the student body attended an assembly while the other half was in class, and vice versa. The plan of having three lunch periods was reestablished; it had been discontinued in 1934. Many new 7:40 classes were organized; these were especially for the benefit of the students who transferred from Lincoln, because their first bus arrived at Queen Anne every morning at 7:30.

Certainly these aids to the smooth and efficient running of our school so well applied by this staff of men and women thoroughly trained in the teaching arts are definitely responsible for our school life's success and happiness.

Senior Class History

WE NEVER thought we'd graduate . . . we really didn't. We accepted the fact that former classes completed their four years and consequently stepped out into life, but '37 to us was a vague futurity . . . something we scrawled on our hideous blue notebooks . . . something we blotted after our names in the '34 annuals . . . something we had sewed on our sweaters . . . but nothing more than that.

Queen Anne was so huge . . . so grey . . . so educational, to us. We were terribly frightened, and a little proud to have relinquished grade school. We fingered our starched shirts and mended middies nervously . . . we innocently inquired our way to the fourth floor . . . we invariably scanned the Kuay for our names . . . we made a mad rush for the door when the first lunch bell sounded in fourth study—and were instantly quelled when half the population bellowed "Freshman!!" . . .

And then we grew accustomed to high school . . . or thought we did. We rushed with the crowd to assemblies . . . we tumbled off our hilltop to football games . . . we felt sudden surges of school spirit, but never as much as now . . . Suddenly we were second half freshmen, with an impressive "II" after some subjects . . . such as algebra . . . and French . . . and we watched the incoming freshmen straggle about, and screamed "Freshman!" at them, but never quite as loudly as we thought . . . and we joked knowingly about elevator tickets, though we never actually saw one . . . and we felt pretty important . . .

It seemed a big task for the first weeks we struggled for a remarkable master

That first year Edo Vanni was chosen president, with Bill Hawke vice-president, Ray Carlson secretary, Ted Hurley treasurer, and Dick Munger Kuay representative.

We won the frosh football championship, under Arthur L. Shelton as coach . . . and we gave a theater party with the sophomores . . . and then we WERE sophomores . . .

As such, we were led by Edo Vanni, Bill Hawke, Virginia Butler, Kay Brennesholtz, and Virginia Dearborn . . . We gave another theater party in collaboration with the freshmen . . . and were glad that WE were the sophomores, this time . . .

Then we were upper-classmen . . . jaunty juniors . . . conscious of our past and aware of our future . . . electing Edo Vanni, Bill Hawke, Bob Hertel, Dick Neuharth, and Betty Herbert. Betty Gibbs was in charge of a Valentine mixer given by the juniors for both upper classes.

Again the juniors convened and elected Ray Carlson as president, Mary Elizabeth Shipman his understudy, Tom Papke to pen the activities, Margaret Dean to count the coins, and Virginia Dearborn, Kuay reporter.

Now we are seniors. We have topped those three furious years of fun and frolic, and have at last had the opportunity to define "vocation" and give it some serious thought. All at once we realize that graduating is not only a possibility, but a probability — and we are first amused — then amazed.

We drop in at the Inn for a soda with the shots . . . collect dates for dances . . . wear loud combinations of colors . . . borrow Dad's car to impress the fellahs . . . order our graduation announcements and personal cards . . . find out how to spell diploma . . . count our credits . . . visualize how we'll look in caps and gowns . . .

Ray Carlson again led us as president, assisted by Tom Papke, Dick Strand, Edo Vanni, and Jack Smith. The second half of our senior year we elected Ray Carlson, Tom Papke, Helen Payne, Ted Hurley, and Virginia Dearborn.

We are proud of our valedictorian, Mary Shanafelt, and our salutatorian, Joan Hetherington.

For our class speakers we chose Will Parry and Whitney Bates.

Then came our senior picnic — we were all together once more — and if we regretted just a little that our high school days were gone, we were to be excused . . .

Through those four years which sped so quickly by, we were coached and guided by friendly Frank M. Rose, our invaluable adviser.

And so . . . until we meet again . . .

It was fun, wasn't it?

Junior Class History

SHIP AHOY! All aboard on the good ship 1938 for a four-year cruise up and down the halls of Queen Anne.

After several days of stormy weather we stopped at port 216 to organize our crew, which resulted with Ray Segale at the helm, Margie Eardley the first mate, Juanita Walker keeper of the log, Hugh Griffiths guarding the funds, and Florence Berg the messenger.

As a change from regular ship duty, we met the sister ship '37 and attended the show "Handy Andy."

After returning to port to take on more provisions, we resumed our voyage. Ray Segale continued as master of the ship, Catherine Stolle assisted him as first mate, Juanita Walker still kept the log, Margaret Ross signed checks, and Bob Kildall radioed our activities to the Kuay.

Several months of smooth sailing passed and then we invited the ship '39 to attend a Frosh-Soph theater party.

The third year of our cruise we were allowed to roam the upper decks as we were becoming more experienced in the ways of the sea.

Again we stopped at port 216 to rearrange the management of the boat. This time Bob Hughes donned the captain's uniform, Bill Stapleton became first mate, Hank Ketcham recorded in the log, Jean Houlette cared for the finances, and George Powers was chief messenger.

In return for the kind invitations of our older sister ship '37 to a previous dance, we sponsored a mixer which both crews enjoyed.

As the activities of our ship became greater a new crew of officers was chosen. Catherine Stolle directed the course and Peggy Slater helped her when the weather was especially rough. Rosemary Weil kept the log up-to-date, Bob Hughes cared for the money and Bill Stapleton sent out press notices.

One day we saw a distress signal flying from Lincoln island. Dropping anchor we found about fifty stranded people whom we immediately took aboard. To make these new passengers feel more at home, a mixer was given in their honor.

After the daily chores were finished the boys took time off to enjoy all the sports in the navy.

Other activities included participation in several dramatic productions and a tea given in honor of the girls of '37.

And so we drop anchor once again and look forward to new adventures and experiences on the last lap of our journey.

We want to thank Admiral Kenneth Campbell for his kind advice and assistance, for without him we never would have traveled the many knots we did.

—CATHERINE STOLLE.

Sophomore Class History

THE CLASS OF 1940 got under way last fall for its sophomore year by electing Kay Finn, president; Avis Parks, vice-president; Boyce Eastham, treasurer; Margaret Christensen, secretary, and Lewis Crutcher, Kuay representative.

The class has had representatives in all fields of school activities, many receiving athletic awards and several holding offices in the various clubs throughout the school.

Outstanding among these were Bill Jorgenson and Eudora Britten who had leads in "Your Uncle Dudley" and the Kuay Kapers, respectively.

Two theater parties were held for the Freshman and Sophomore classes. The first one, which was held in January, featured "The Three Musketeers." At the second one, held in May, "Hearts in Bondage" was the picture which was shown.

The class' choice of officers to represent them during the spring semester was Boyce Eastham, president, with Maxine Holley to assist him as vice-president. Bob McCarter took the minutes and Archie Gilbert was treasurer. Lois Foreman reported the class activities to the Kuay.

The class of 1940 feels that it owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Herb Lewis who has so ably guided it as class adviser.

Freshmen Class History

WHEN WE, the class of '40, entered Queen Anne as freshmen, our ambitions were high. We were strongly determined to be an outstanding class and we think we have made a good start.

In the fall election, Bob Hass was elected president and Jimmie Kaldall, vice-president. Belle Muir kept the secretary's books and Doris Cook gave our news to the Kuay weekly.

The spring election results showed Vernice Monsey as president and Bob Bergeron as vice-president. The secretarial books were turned over to Joanne Mersereau. The finances were taken care of by Bill Eardley. Jay Baumgarten was Kuay representative.

A good many freshmen were stage struck. Dorothy Short with her fine singing and acting ability, made a big hit as the leading lady in the Kapers' College Scene. Dorothy Reynard played a leading role in the play "Your Uncle Dudley." Jimmie Kaldall portrayed three characters in the Kapers.

The frosh athletic season was unusually good. Three of the many outstanding boys were Bill Code, Bruce Jaton and Bert Joachims. We hope these boys will help to make up Queen Anne championship teams in the very near future.

Guidance Advisers

A NEW guidance program which was approved by the School Board was instituted throughout the nine high schools and went into effect in September.

Faculty members have been chosen as advisers of the four classes. Senior class adviser is Miss Nada Overland.

"Anyone who has a problem should feel free to call upon us," Miss Overland said, "the purpose of the guidance program is to help you. Your making your problems known aids us in our purpose."

Junior class guidance adviser, Lee Garrison, stated, "In any program of guidance it is necessary to contact students, and this will be primary aim. I hope that members of the Junior class will bring their difficulties to me. It may be possible that I can solve some of their problems. I hope so."

Charles Foster, Sophomore adviser, had this to say about his program:

"The object of counseling is to enlarge the services of the high school and to help the student to appreciate more completely the opportunities ahead of him."

Felix Moore, who was chosen Freshman guidance adviser, says:

"The aim of this program is to give students information and advice concerning vocational and leisure time activities outside of school. The interviews are available to those who need or seek assistance. Many of the students seek interviews voluntarily, others are asked to come because of special difficulties."

The students offer their sincere appreciation to these capable guidance advisers who have helped them with their problems and vocations.

In the Grizzlies' first encounter they downed Garfield for the first time in the schools' rivalry by a 10-7 score. Edo Vanni scored all the Grizzlies' points.

The Kuays next downed a supposedly strong Franklin team, 15-0. Bill Hawke's line-plunging accounted for both Bear scores.

A scrappy Cleveland team went under, 13-0, after a hard fight. Ray Carlson scored on a pass from Vanni and the latter made the second touchdown on a fifty-seven yard gallop.

The Grizzlies had too much for the undefeated Lynx and came out on top, 9-0. Vanni booted a twenty-three-yard field goal in the first half. In the third quarter Carlson made a diving catch of Vanni's throw in the end zone to complete the scoring.

Roosevelt took a hard-earned, 3-0 victory from the Kuays. Elmer Berg, Teddy fullback, was the lad who put an end to the Grizzlies' winning ways. The usual offensive spark was missing from the Kuay in this encounter.

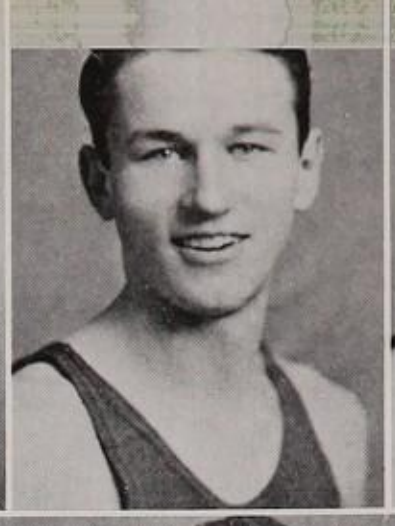
Ballard's lowly Beavers pulled the season's biggest upset when they tied the Kuays and knocked them out of a tie for first place. Carlson snared Vanni's pass to put the Bears in front where they stayed until the last two minutes when the Beavers knotted the count at 6-6.

Captain Don Means was awarded the inspirational award as well as being chosen all-city guard. Edo Vanni won the all-city quarterback berth and Ray Carlson an end position.



COACH DAVIS ROY RICHSTAD DICK MUNGER DON MEANS

First Team Basketball

WITH the return of five seasoned veterans Coach Herb Davis' hustling hoopsters showed an occasional spark to finish up a tough schedule in sixth place with five wins and seven losses.

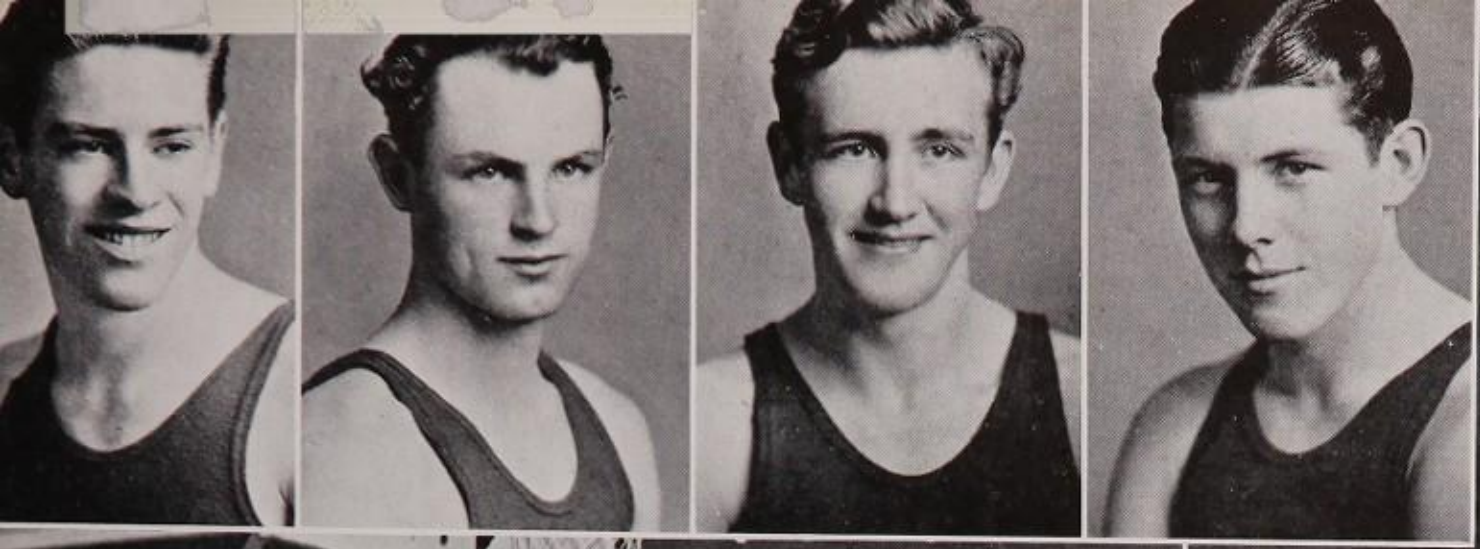
Roy Richstad, clever ball-handling ace of the Grizzly squad, led the team in scoring with an even 100 points, being placed on the all-city second team. Dick Munger ran second with 78 points.

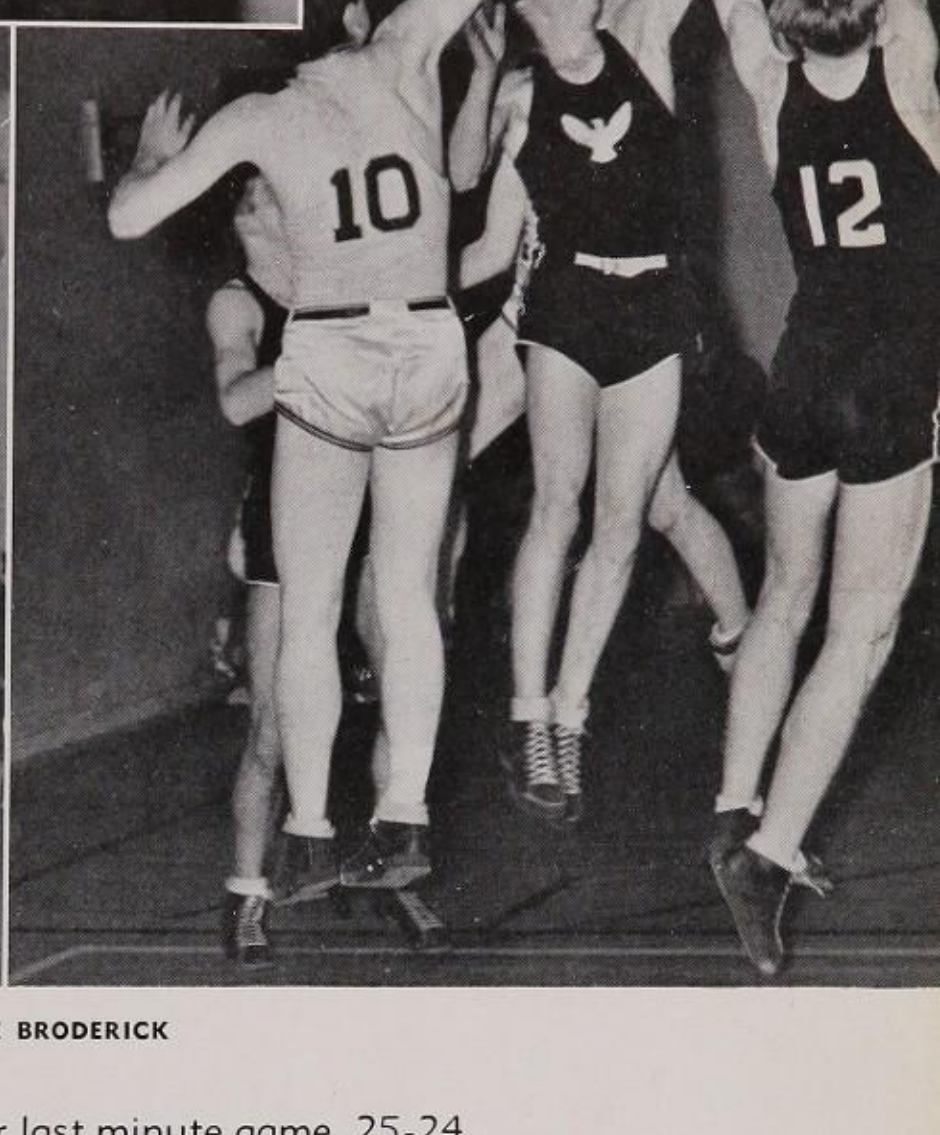
Opening the season with Ballard, the Grizzly quintet made a real game of it in the first half. In the second half, however, Ballard started clicking and ended up with a 38-19 victory.

Traveling to the Cleveland gym, the Grizzlies won a nip-and-tuck battle, 24-22.

The next home game against Roosevelt proved to be the best of the season with the Roughriders getting an overtime verdict, 30-28.

Franklin next visited the local cheese-box only to lose a hair-raising battle to the tune of 43-42. The Bears' uncanny foul-throwing and Munger's 15 points proved the margin of victory.





TED HURLEY EARL LAURENT FRANK PROFFITT JOE BRODERICK

In the West Seattle gym the Kuays lost another last minute game, 25-24, when a wild shot from mid-floor by an Indian player went in.

With Richstad and Broderick scoring 14 and 12 points respectively, Queen Anne trounced Lincoln 39-24, after a good first half fight by the Lynx.

Ballard's Beavers again showed their championship form and swamped the Grizzlies, 50-30.

Back in their own gym the Kuays again beat Cleveland by a 35-24 score.

Roosevelt's smooth passing combination smothered the Grizzlies, 47-25, in the next fracas. Hurley led the Kuays with 12 points.

A last-period scoring spree, led by Broderick, enabled Queen Anne to take Franklin, 39-35.

West Seattle came to the local gym and defeated the Grizzlies 39-35, although Richstad tallied 15 points and Munger 10.

With Hurley out at center, the weakened Kuays lost to the lowly Lynx 43-29 in the last game of the year.

Those receiving first team letters were: Roy Richstad, Captain Don Means, Ted Hurley, Captain Dick Munger, Joe Broderick, Earl Laurent and Frank Proffitt.

Second Team Football

QUEEN ANNE'S second team football players, or better known as the scrubs, finished fourth in the final standings, with two victories, one loss, a 7-3 upset by Roosevelt, and two ties. The scrubs play just as hard as the first team. They have the same rules to go by; the blocking and tackling is just as hard and yardage is never any easier to cover. The only thing that is lacking is general interest and glory.

Reserve strength is an important factor to high school grid teams, and the Kuay second team was one reason why Herb Davis' regulars finished so well up in the standings. Second team awards went to: Russ Alexander, Ken Fitzgerald, Hal Johnson, Dave Jacobs, Gilbert Lahti, Lawrence Nicolich, Paul Rockas, Myron Duncan, Bill Rogers, Bruce Hutson, Bill Stapleton, Bob Van Druff, John Whaley, Jack Wilson, and Ray Pierson.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

LOREN SCHOEL'S first freshman football squad at Queen Anne won one and lost two for the season. The frosh line, although comparatively small, displayed plenty of aggressiveness against its heavier opponents. Bert Joachims, Frank Robinson and Bill Code did most of the ball-packing. Numerals went to: Ray Sundquist, Reuben Johnson, Jim Thoren, Ray Masters, ends; Bill Jensen, Walt Rickett, Howard Randolph, tackles; Dick Elkins, Joe Ure, Walt Madden, Merle Hagstrom, guards; and Harry Northup and Bob Dodds, centers. Backfield: Bert Joachims, Frank Robinson, Harvey Smith, Ben Matsumoto, Bill Code and Bob Swanson.

Bill Agnetti, manager, was also given a numeral.

Second Team Basketball

THE KUAY scrub squad completed a better than average season by finishing in a tie with Garfield for third place by winning six, losing five, and tying one. Of the five lost, several were by one- and two-point margins.

Dick Tenney, a sophomore, and Don Lawson, led the scrub scorers with forty-eight and thirty-two points respectively.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

QUEEN ANNE'S sophomore casaba team, coached by Loren Schoel, had a fairly successful season, ending in a four-way deadlock for fourth place by winning four and dropping four.

Jack May and Bob Schaeffer led the offense while John Whaley proved to be the best floor-man and checker.

Those receiving numerals were: Jack May, Bob Schaeffer, Lloyd Born, John Whaley, John Hendricks, Morris Morby, Bob Stagg, Vernon Laurent, and Phil Schallow. The manager was Ken Prestrud.

Freshman Basketball

UNDER the able tutoring of Coach Loren Schoel, the Kuay Frosh basketball team battled its way into a second place tie with Broadway while Garfield was out in front by two games.

The Grizzlies completed the most successful season a Frosh team has seen in a number of years by winning six and dropping two.

Bill Code led the point getters with a total of thirty-six points and also was the best floor-man on the squad. Don Millikin was a close second in the scoring with thirty-two points.

The numeral winners were: Bill Code, Warwick Shettle, Don Millikin, Frank Horsley, Bruce Jaton, Bert Joachims, Denny Thompson, Harry Northrup, Bob Hass, Bud Collins, Andy Tuson, Bill Slater, Clifford Kendall, and Bill Martin. William Agnetti was manager.

SOPHOMORE TRACK results were better this year than for many years as the Grizzlies took fourth spot with 13 points.

Lloyd Olsen won the pole vault, jumping nine feet nine inches, while Bill Zobrist took his heat of the quarter-mile in the time of 56.8. Glen Weller captured a second in this same event.

Underclassmen unable to compete because they had previously won points were Andy Tuson and Don Rogers.

Freshman Track

THE GRIZZLY YEARLINGS showed promise of future track strength when they captured third place in the Freshman All-City with 25 points.

Bert Joachims took his heat of the quarter-mile; Bud Collins won the low hurdles, and Frank Glantz ran a fine half-mile. Kendall placed in the discus.

First Team Baseball

WITH the return of Erwin Henkel to the coaching duties Queen Anne has played its way into a championship contending position. Coach Henkel has molded from eight returning lettermen and some 80 additional aspirants, an average offensive but strong defensive team. At the time of writing the team is well up in the standings with 3 wins and 1 defeat, 1 tie game having been played.

Traveling out to the Broadway field Queen Anne came from behind to battle the Tigers to a colorful 3-3 12 inning deadlock which was halted by darkness. The game was a tight pitchers' duel with Sandstrom of Broadway and Budnick of Queen Anne having 18 and 16 strikeouts respectively. Bob Johnson helped the Kuay cause with a long home run.

At the first game on the home field Ballard was beaten 2-1 in a close contest. But hard luck was with the Grizzlies as the game was ordered replayed on a protest of Ballard over the um-pire's decision which resulted in a score for Queen Anne.

Queen Anne finally broke into the standings when they gave the visiting Garfield team a 3-2 setback. Budnick granted but 3 hits and struck out 11, while Jim Blashfield came through with a rousing home circuit blow to drive in two runs.

The team next took two convincing wins, the first over Roosevelt 5-0, followed by a victory over Lincoln 4-0.

The tight fielding Franklin team gave Queen Anne its first defeat, outscoring the Grizzlies 7-5. Franklin scored their runs in the early innings and by fine fielding kept down a late Grizzly uprising. Vanni and Hertel hit home runs to keep the score close.

Mike Budnick has proven himself to be one of the league's outstanding pitchers, while at the receiving end Joe McNamee lives up to his past All City rating.

Bob Johnson, a Junior, has held down the initial sack in fine fashion; Jim Blashfield, a Lincoln transfer, at second and Joe Koenigs, letterman transfer from O'Dea at shortstop are valuable additions to the Grizzly nine, while Earl Brady again held down 3rd base with his excellent fielding.

Roaming in the outfield are Bill Cox, a steady fielder; Edo Vanni, two time All City choice, and Jimmy Dixon, transfer from O'Dea who makes many startling catches. Jim Donald is also receiving his share of the outfielding duties.

Praise is due to Coach Henkel who has again proven his ability as a top coach of the league.

The none too easy managerial jobs were held by Vern Laurent, head manager; Dominic Budnick, Bob Berry, Bob Burns, and Bill Lahr.

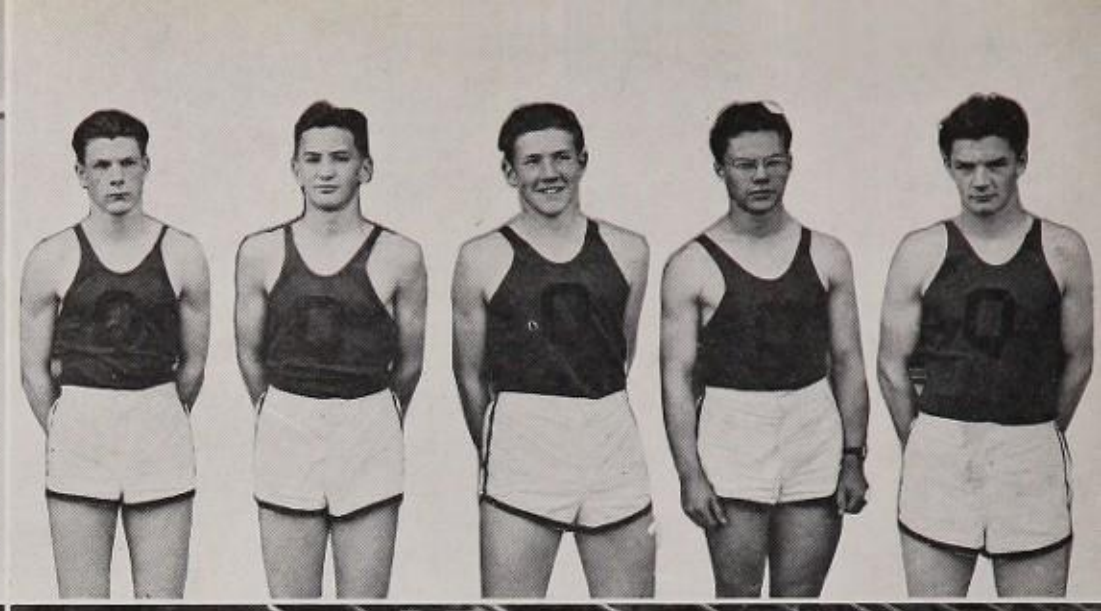
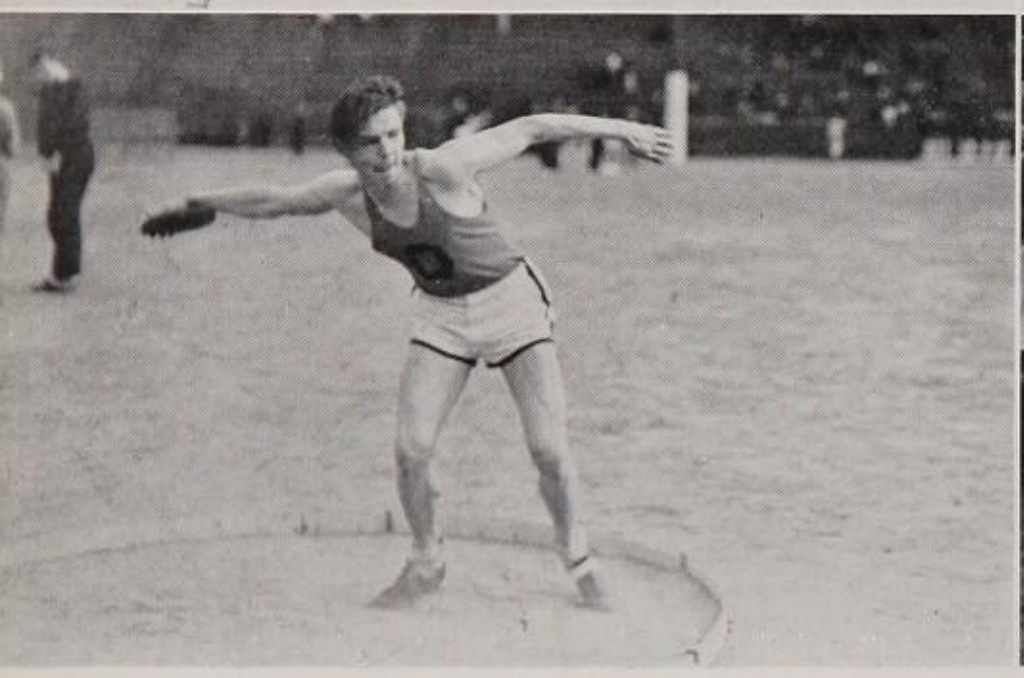
The Track Team

MAKING a fairly successful season under the guiding hand of Coach Herb Davis, the Grizzly trackmen lost to the strong Franklin team, took the middle spot between Lincoln and West Seattle in a triangular, and lost a tough meet to Ballard.

The opening meet showed Queen Anne's potential strength in the field events, Willard Rogers taking the shot put and Frank Proffitt taking both high jump and pole vault. Larry Lydon took the Grizzlies' only track event when he walked in with the half-mile. The final was 70-43.

Lincoln took the triangular which followed, having 74 points to Queen Anne's 25 and West Seattle's 14. Highlights included





JACOBS D. ROGERS PHILLIPS BOGUE W. ROGERS

In the closest meet of the season, the Bears were defeated by two points, $57\frac{1}{2}$-$55\frac{1}{2}$, in the annual battle with Ballard. Parry cut the auditorium record in the low hurdles to 23.9 seconds, while Lydon captured the half-mile in excellent time. George Collins, speedy sprint man, took second in both dash events, while the relay team of Bogue, Peterson, Collins and Parry won their first baton-passing event.

The final meet, a triangular affair with Roosevelt and Cleveland, was taken by the Teddies 59 to 40 for the Grizzlies and 14 for Cleveland. This was a splendid showing, as the Roughriders had defeated Garfield in a previous meet. Plenty of strength in the distances was evident as Lydon won the mile and George Powers made good time in the 880, also getting first. Will Parry won high and low hurdles.

A second team meet was run off in conjunction with the letterwinners' contest. Ray Gilkerson, Bud Collins and Bert Joachims showed up well in their events.

PETERSON CHAPPELL PARRY TUSON MOE

As the annual goes to press, the All-City meet remains before the close of the season.

Lettermen include: Bogue, Collins and Peterson in the sprints; Peterson and Parry in the hurdles; Jacobs, Lydon and Powers in the distances; Rogers and Phillips in the shot and discus; Proffitt and Tuson in the high jump; Proffitt and Don Rogers in the pole vault; and Chappell in the broad jump.

A great deal of credit has been earned by Head Manager Weldon Andrews and his capable assistants.

The Golf Squad

THIS year's golf season proved quite unsuccessful for the Kuay Linksmen due to the lack of experienced players.

The Grizzlies showed a little threat in the beginning by winning their first match against West Seattle. The threat soon grew weaker when they dropped the next match to Lincoln.

The prospects for next season's team is very enlightening as only two members, Jim Wilson and Manager Bill Moorhouse, are graduating.

We are indebted to Lincoln Hi for sending over two very promising players: Captain Bob Morrice and Charles "Chuck" Johnson.

This year's team was composed of Jim Wilson, Frank Morris, Captain, Bob Morrice; Warren Peck, "Chuck" Johnson, Ken McElhaney, Walty Bartron, Bill Schwanke, Hal Dundas, Glen Cunningham, and Bob Clarke, with Bill Moorhouse as manager.

Despite the series of losses, the fellows of the 1937 golf squad did their very best—and what more could they have done?

—BILL MOORHOUSE.

The Tennis Squad

WITH the return of only one letterman, Sid Goodwin, and one other squad member, Jack Jorgeson, the Queen Anne tennis team showed very little promise.

The boys that played singles for the team were Hugo Utter, Sid Goodwin, Bob Schaeffer, Ray Carlson, Jack Jorgeson, and Jack Smith. The doubles teams were composed of Utter and Goodwin, first doubles; Jorgeson and Schaeffer, second doubles; and Jack May and Don Millikin, third doubles. The other boys composing the squad were Warwick Shettle and Bob Wycoff, with Ray Richards as the Head Manager.

In the first game of the season, West Seattle defeated Queen Anne, 6-3. Goodwin, playing inspired tennis, was the only one to win his singles. The first and third doubles teams won their matches.

Facing Garfield, last year's champs, Queen Anne showed badly, losing 8-1. It was Jorgeson and Schaeffer, paired in doubles, who saved the team from a whitewashing.

To Mr. Bressler goes much credit. He gave his time tirelessly for the boys' benefit and they have appreciated his help and guidance.

☆ "Kuay

LED by General Don W. Karshner, Major Esther Uhden, and Lieutenants Marjorie Moran and Jerry Appy, three hundred fifty Queen Anne students presented "Time on Parade" March 12 and 13.

The lively show, revolving around a fictitious central office of "Time Magazine" and "Time Marches On," found Chief Editor John Grant sending his reporters out on special assignments which turned out to be the acts of the show.

Kapers"

Continuity action was led by Hero Bob Hughes, Heroine Eudora Britten, and Villainess Betty Gibbs, who carried the plot, while the twelve page programs and Rudy Zallinger's portrait of Principal Otto L. Luther highlighted the very successful show.

Behind the scenes, a highly efficient staff of assistants was led by Junior Managers Margaret Ross and George Sunde.

"Your Uncle Dudley"

WITH Jerry Appy and Henry Ketcham in the title roles of the Senior Play, "Your Uncle Dudley," presented on December 7th and 8th, Queen Anne staged one of the funniest and most entertaining of productions ever presented in the school's Auditorium.

The cast for Friday night was: Jerry Appy, Pauline Behnke, Dorothy Reynard, Kathleen Guild, Bill Jorgensen, Helen Penepacker, Ed Cannell and Tom Trumbull.

The cast for Saturday night was: Henry Ketcham, Marcia Hopper, Virginia Rich, Anne Goist, Tod Burnam, Elizabeth Anne Green, Bob Hughes and George Apostol.

"The Merry Widow"

JUNE 4 and 5, R. H. Kendrick, Miss Esther Uhden and Don W. Karshner presented Queen Anne's sixth straight success, the annual spring opera which this year was "The Merry Widow."

Maxine Williams as Sonia and Jerry Appy as Prince Danila supported by Laurene Lindgren as Natalie, Bob Hughes as Camille and Bruce MacAulay, the comic lead, Baron Popoff, headed a large cast which included: Chet Sunski, Bernard Corneliussen, Catherine Mills, Jim Sheldon, Tom Trumbull, Bill Jorgenson, Pat Schage, Evelyn Gilmore and Louise Vitalich.

Franz Lehor's beautiful music featuring the "Merry Widow Waltz" punctuated the fast musical comedy with delightful moments. The dances were arranged by Marianne Owen. Senior director was Marjorie Moran, Virginia Rich and George Sunde were junior directors.

Music Department

THE Queen Anne Music Department under the capable baton of Mr. R. H. Kendrick cooperated with the dramatic department to give a series of exceptional entertainments during the last year. Excellent work was done in the Kuay Kapers and the annual operetta, "The Merry Widow" by the choruses, glee clubs, and senior orchestra.

Queen Anne placed eleven of its musicians in the All-City High School Orchestra. Showing the abundance of talent in our, at that time, comparatively small school, this number equals that of several larger schools. Those in that organization were: Jerry Ogle, Mary Apostol, Phyllis Burglehaus, Roy Hargett, Harry Peterson, Beverly Schneider, Bill Sloan, Arden Stevens, Tom Welty, Bob MacDonald, and Edward Tennant.

Queen Anne also had five of its musicians in the All-Northwest Chorus and Orchestra which met at Portland. They were: Tom Welty, Roy Hargett, and Bill Sloan, instrumentalists; Maxine Williams and Jeanne McLean sang in the mammoth chorus. Mr. Kendrick and Miss Kretsinger also attended as members of the faculty.

Kuay Staff

THIS YEAR the Kuay has been managed by a competent group of editors.

Margie Weaver, Mary Elizabeth Shipman, and Nell Easton headed the Kuay staff, each for a period of ten weeks. During the week when the staff was made up entirely of boys, Will Parry was editor. Carrying on to the close of the school year, Beverly Player and Molly Sylvester served as co-editors.

Ken Dever, Will Parry and Frank Norman were the sport editors.

One of the most important positions on the staff is that of the advertising manager, who must be business-like and dependable at all times. Nell Easton, Molly Sylvester and Florence Ann Berg filled this position, in succession, during the year.

This student enterprise was ably directed by three members of the faculty, Journalism Instructor Miss Carolyn Barclay, Literary Adviser Victor Buchanan, and Financial Adviser Miss Effie Spence.

Annual Staff

SCHOOL LIFE—the theme of the bigger and better 1937 Grizzly annual. With division pages made of miniature photos of various members of the student body, it is a book composed, truly, for the enjoyment of students as a whole.

Margie Weaver and Mary Elizabeth Shipman, as editors of the book, started to work on the enlarged book in the fall of 1936. The number of the student body, increased by the transfer of Lincoln students to Queen Anne, made it necessary to add sixteen pages to the book.

Dick Munger was placed in charge of sports with three able assistants, Ken Dever, Ray Carlson, and Jack Miller who acted as sports photographer. Girls' athletics were handled by Pat Mitchell.

Rudy Zallinger, local art wizard, was commissioned to sketch pictures of well-known students to be used in the end sheet.

To look out for the welfare of their fellow-juniors were two veterans of last year's annual, Vera Bean and Margaret Eardley. Assisting them was Jane Criddle.

Clubs came under the direction of Catherine Stolle and Ruth Hill. Personality Editor was Virginia Dearborn who wrote the clever song captions accompanying the senior pictures.

Pauline Behnke and Jackie Caskin edited the snapshot section.

When the time arrived to sell coupons for pictures, seniors Hank Ketcham and Margaret Dean won free annuals for selling the most. Other seniors working hard were Garland Morrison, Ray Carlson, Jack Smith, Charlie Biggs, Eddie Cannell, Pierce Cartwright, Jack Schwartz, George Benson, Millie Leishman, Virginia Butler, Ruth Gordon, Violet Curlin, Bette Lou Daniel, Pauline Behnke and Betty Gibbs.

Juniors working for free annuals were Bill Stapleton, Bob Hughes, Maynard Jones, Ralph Runner, Bill Severyns, Peggy Hanson, Bette Murray, Pat Spies, Dorothy Lemberg and Betty Jane Boswell. Catherine Stolle and Ray Segale succeeded in selling the most.

To put out a book there must be advertising. With hopes high several ambitious students descended on local merchants to sell space in their book.

The best high-powered salesmen, Eugene Hall and Betty Palmer, won the title of "Ad Managers."

Without the very willing help of Charles G. Parke and Victor Buchanan, literary adviser, it would have been difficult to publish this book.

The Honor Society

EACH YEAR more students are able to maintain the high standards of Queen Anne's Honor Society. Consequently it has become one of the school's outstanding organizations.

An honor assembly is held each semester at which emblems are awarded to those eligible for membership. A sophomore must acquire twenty-four points in two semesters to hold a one-bar pin. To obtain a two-bar pin juniors must acquire in four semesters fifty points. The seniors earning seventy-eight points in six semesters may wear a torch pin.

Points are based on the following system: four points for an "A", three points for a "B", and two points for a "C". Points are also given to those especially active in student enterprises.

At the fall meeting these officers were elected: Molly Sylvester, president; Whitney Bates, vice-president; Rosemary Weil, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Kildall, Kuay Representative.

Girls' Club

UNDER the leadership of Mrs. E. Iorns, the Girls' Club initiated two new ideas this year: a Dad-Daughter banquet, and faculty advisers for the seven important committees.

Two very successful all-Girls' Club parties were put on. Faculty teas, committee drives and a Mother-Daughter banquet comprised an active year in Girls' Club work.

Parent-Teachers' Association

"ENRICHING character through education," the theme of the Queen Anne Parent-Teachers' Association for the past year, proved to be an excellent basis for the interesting monthly meetings and the fine work done.

Mrs. J. E. MacPherson was re-elected president for this year. Other officers were: Mrs. Oliver Pratt, first vice-president; Mrs. George Sunde, second vice-president; Mrs. Eleanor Iorns, third vice-president; Mrs. Donald C. Burnam, recording secretary; Mrs. O. C. Erickson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Land, treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Moore, parliamentarian, and Mrs. P. D. Jennings, junior past president.

Sponsoring many high school dances, cooperating at the Thanksgiving football game, aiding with school projects and contributing to various welfare causes were only a few of the many accomplishments of the P.-T. A. group during the past year.

An evening meeting was held in January honoring the Dads, with the executive board as hostesses.

Many past presidents were at the Founders' Day meeting held in February, at which the Boys' and Girls' Club officers were hostesses.

After a very successful and eventful year, the Queen Anne Parent-Teachers' Association should indeed be congratulated.

—MOLLY SYLVESTER.

Standing: Mr. E. Miller, Ward Roberts, George Harvey. Seated: Evelyn Gilmour, Whitney Bates, Jim Wilson, Jarvis Stixrood.

The Debate Team

THE Queen Anne debaters accomplished much in the field of verbal combat. They represented the school in a commendable way in the four inter-high school debates this year. Beginning the season were Bernard Corneliussen, cross examiner, and Evelyn Gilmour constructive speaker for the affirmative on the question, "Resolved, That the Old Age Pension Feature of the Social Security Act Be Retained."

This problem was discussed with Lincoln and Cleveland. Whitney Bates and Henry Johnson upheld the negative against Roosevelt and West Seattle.

The second semester's debate was composed of inexperienced but worthy debaters. After a series of eliminations the two representative teams were selected. George Harvey, Jarvis Stixrood, and Ward Roberts debated the affirmative opposing Garfield and Franklin. James Wilson and Evelyn Gilmour upheld the negative, meeting Ballard and Broadway. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the Local Law Enforcement Officers Be Replaced By a System of State Police."

Mr. Miller successfully coached the teams through the debate year.

The students who spent their time in preparation of debate, who did not represent the school, deserve much praise.

—BERNARD CORNELIUSSEN.

School Business Staff

THE business staff under the able advisership of Vernon B. Johnson is in charge of all school activities in which money or stamp cards are used: dramatic productions, movies and all sport games played in school gyms or the Civic Field. It also handles the ushering at the school productions and the Commencement Ceremonies.

Concerning the work, Mr. Johnson says, "I appreciate the spirit of cooperation and sacrifice that has been exhibited by the staff in the many activities which have been particularly heavy this year."

Hook, Line & Sinker Club

HAVE you ever been fishing? Have you ever felt the thrill of a jerk on your line? Well, if you've never been fishing and had all the fun that goes with it, you ought to join the Queen Anne Hook, Line and Sinker Club, and "learn to land 'em."

The first set of "of-fish-ials" for this group is "Kingfish," Ralph McGough; "Little Kingfish," Pat Wyman; "Suckertary," Evelyn Gilmour; "Goldfish," Martin Lindell, and "Kuay Shiner," Jack Jorgenson.

This club is for fishermen—good or bad—and is advised by Mr. Kenneth Campbell.

—PEGGY SLATER.

Inklings Club

POETRY, prose, and imagination reigned throughout the year at the Inklings Club meetings. Write-a-Story-Week brought in many new members, and the club published an Inklings Booklet in May.

The club library was dedicated to Bob Doble, a former member and graduate of '33.

The officers for the first semester were: Violet Curlin, Bob Slocum, and Lorraine Morgan. For the second semester the officers were: Bob Kildall, Pat Dunham, Bob Slocum, and Lorraine Morgan.

Chess Club

THE CHESS CLUB has enjoyed a most active year under the leadership of the following officers: Burrell Ellis, president; Ursula Trueblood, secretary, and Bill Levy, Kuay Representative. The team, coached by Willis Leake, won fifth place in the high school tournament. Those who played on the team were: Burrell Ellis, Charles Farrell, Ray Petrich, Tom Noble, Bill Robertson, Jim Houston, Bill Levy, Bill Rasmussen, Jack Arnold, and Forbes Heavens.

—URSULA TRUEBLOOD.

Camera Club

DURING the past year the club's adviser, Arthur Shelton, explained many interesting facts of photography to the members and taught them to mix solutions, print pictures, and make enlargements.

The object of this club is to interest members in making photography a hobby.

The club was led by the following officers: Jarvis Stixrood, president; William Hunter, secretary; Borghild Horne, treasurer, and Allan Leberg, Kuay Representative.

—BORGHILD HORNE.

Radio Club

UNDER the leadership of Mr. Willard O. Baker the club again secured Mr. Norman Clark, W. P. A. radio instructor, who gave an interesting course and helped several members obtain their operators' licenses.

A renewal of the Club's station license, W7BPY, was secured by Martin Derksema, who, with Leroy Nelson, drew up plans and started construction of a modern 150-watt radio telephone and telegraph transmitter.

Officers of the club were: Herb Munter, W7FMZ, president; Martin Derksema, W7FZB, vice-president; Ward Roberts, secretary; Leroy Nelson, treasurer, and Jack Ellerbeck, Kuay Reporter.

—MARTIN DERKSEMA.

Players' Guild

THE PLAYERS' GUILD is an organization composed of "A" oral expression students and the leads in school productions.

Included in the club's activities during the year was the opportunity to hear Burk Ormsby from the Federal Theater Project give an interesting review on "Natural Man" and the Community Theater Project.

At the beginning of the fall semester members elected Avis Parks, president; Margie Moran, vice-president; Muriel McLean, secretary, and Jerry Appy, Kuay Representative. Miss Esther D. Uhden is the faculty adviser.

Debate Club

THE DEBATE CLUB convened every week during the debate season with Bernard Corneliussen as president; Whitney Bates as vice-president; Evelyn Gilmour, secretary-treasurer, and Laurence Fry, Kuay Representative.

Questions concerning the problems confronting the people and the legislatures of the nation were discussed by this group. Broadcasting debates was conceived at the Debate Club and a conference was held at Queen Anne, with representatives from each high school to discuss the possibilities.

—BERNARD CORNELIUSSEN.

German Club

COMPOSED of German students "Der Deutche Verein" meets each month under the leadership of Mr. Benno Uhl.

The officers of the first semester were Jerry Cameron, acting as president; Evelyn Samuelson, who assisted as vice-president, and Julia Cole whose duty it was to handle records and funds. During the second semester, the offices were given over to Hugo Engel, president; Martin Rind, vice-president, and Evelyn Samuelson, secretary-treasurer.

During the meetings, members discuss current scientific and political activities of the Central Powers, and their effect on the youth of today.

Spanish Club

THE purpose of "El Atenoo Espanol" is to encourage the practical use of the Spanish language and to acquaint students with life in Spain and South America. Therefore, informal Spanish games were featured by the club this year. Some interesting speakers were also procured. The last event of the year was the traditional Spanish-French club party.

Officers for the fall semester were: Roberta Clarke, president; Helen Marie Ryan, vice-president; Vivian DeBruler, secretary; Boyd Vickers, treasurer, and Claire Condie, Kuay Representative. Second semester officers were: Cleve Clayton, president; Marjorie Strong, vice-president; Bill Pande, secretary-treasurer, and Alice Mohler, Kuay Representative.

—CAROLYN WEAVER.

Latin Club

THE SENATUS ROMANUS finished its third year under the able direction of Miss Dorothy McQuiston. This year was highlighted by a stadium scene, depicting the Roman entertainments such as gladiatorial fights, chariot races, etc., which was given at one of the meetings. The play, "Saturnalia," was presented by the boys at the Christmas party.

Following were the fall semester officers: Consuls, Darthilda Martin and Charles Wilson; Aedile, Bob Hass; Quaestor, Sally Briggs; Praetor, Archie Gilbert; Nuntiator, Bill Severyns.

The spring semester officers were: Consuls, Arline Brauer and Jack Chemidlin; Aedile, Virginia Harris; Quaestor, Maxine Holly; Praetor, Boyce Eastham; Nuntiator, Phyllis Burke.

French Club

THE objective of "Le Carcle Francais" is to provide an opportunity for French students to become better acquainted with the language, culture, and the life of the French people. At one meeting Miss Helen Kretsinger discussed French life as she had seen it. The presentation by Mlle. Turrell and Mlle. Mitchell of scenes from "L' Aiglon" gave the students a view of French literature.

The first semester officers were: president, Lucile Lomen; vice-president, Betty Swezea; secretary, Ruth Blair; Kuay Representative, Robert Stein. The second semester officers were: president, Lucile Lomen; vice-president, James Wilson; secretary, Betty Swezea; Kuay Representative, Robert Stein. Mr. Brink is the faculty adviser.

—LUCILE LOMEN.

Boys' "Q" Club

ONE of the most active organizations of the school is the "Q" Club, an organization of boys who have earned their letter in some sport.

It has been ably led during the past year by the following officers: Bill Hawke, president; Ray Segale, vice-president, and Bill Cox, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Loren Schoel, adviser, greatly helped the club in all its activities.

A new feature of the club was the presentation of "Q" pins to all members. A drive was sponsored during the year to get more boys interested in athletics.

Stage Force

THE STAGE FORCE is of necessary importance to each high school production. Scenery adds greatly to the show, and individual construction teaches the students invaluable lessons from working to please an actual audience, not only for their own benefit. Burton Antill, Stanley Norman, Ernest Pace, Bill O'Neil, and Ben Gilman deserve special credit for their work.

—URSULA DICKEY and VIRGINIA DEARBORN.

Hi-Y

BY FAR the most active club of the year, the Queen Anne Hi-Y enjoyed its most successful year. Events of the year were a Father and Son Banquet, Hi-Y Picnic, Skating Party, First Alumni Dinner, Roosevelt-Q.A. Hi-Y Dinner.

The club extends its thanks to our principal, Mr. Otto Luther, and to Mr. Don Karshner for their guidance and fellowship.

Officers for the year were: first semester, president, Don Means; vice-president, Dick Strand; secretary-treasurer, Garland Morrison. Second Semester, president, Jack Schwartz; vice-presidents, Ken Dever and Garland Morrison; secretary, Evart Lamping; treasurer, Ray Segale.

Dear Martha

I think your a swell gail and the best gal a fellow ever had. I sure would like to go steady with you because of the before mentioned. We have had a lot of swell times and I would like to have some more even if things do happen when I go out with you; but that is not the point.

I think you better bring me some luck for a change or else I am going to collect more debts, anyway I'll collect them any way.

Here's hoping

Dear Martha:

Well I've certainly known you a long time. We sure have had some exciting time when we had them. I guess you will have to learn to swim. Roy sure is a swell fellow you are a very lucky girl to have a swell boy friend like him. Here's hoping you go together far into the future. I could say a lot more about him but I'm not writing a book. I sure hope we have just lots of fun in the future. Maybe some day the four of us can go some where together. Well any how I sure do think you're swell and I like you loads. I hope that we can be friends in the future also. Well I guess I will sign off now, So long.

Marjorie A.

Members of the Grizzly staff wish to thank Mr. Walt Irvine of the Western Engraving Company; Mr. George Handley, Jr., and Mr. Chas. Schlosser of the Metropolitan Press; Mr. Coombs and Mrs. Evans of Bushnell's Studio for their cheerful cooperation in the production of this annual. We also wish to express our thanks to our friends whose advertisements appear on these pages.

— THE ANNUAL STAFF.

P.S. well here's to success in the future. Good-luck

Here's luck —
